We have watched Farmer grow, just as we have grown. While still in the elementary school we tried to add "two and two" above the beating of hammers, the rumble of bulldozers and the other noises that went with constructing our new high school building. Being the first Freshman class in the new building gave us quite a thrill.

As Sophomores we realized that we were one step nearer our goal, not only toward completing a high school education, but also toward maturity.

As our student body and organizations grew, we found we were Juniors with great responsibilities. It was a year we shall never forget; a year in which we worked for progress and attained our goal.

It was hard to realize in the fall of '54 that we were really Seniors. But as the year progressed we saw mature boys and girls who had lifted their eyes to new ideas, ideals, and horizons. We reached for the stars, and found ours, to fulfill the greatest commencement.

And so the changing of classes, club meetings, fish fry, parties, Halloween Carnivals, May Day Programs, basketball games, senior play, trip to Washington, Junior-Senior Banquets, weiner roasts, as well as the joys and sorrows shared with friends, are now in the past. In this edition of "Far-Echoes" we seek to bring back to you "lingering memories" as we lived them.

To Mrs. Myrtle Skeen

Who is, in the hearts and minds of the Seniors, an outstanding teacher with a radiant personality. The patience, kindness, peace and goodwill, which are the jewels of her character, have meant to us as much as the reading, writing, and arithmetic we have learned through the years. And now we leave, but the memories of a friend who is so dear to us shall remain. With affection, tempered with sincere admiration and respect, we dedicate the 1955 "Far-Echoes" to Mrs. Myrtle Skeen.

Class History

Four years ago we were a group of twenty-nine bright-faced youngsters beginning our Freshman year at Farmer High School. It gave us a feeling of dignity to be in high school. Yet we were a carefree group looking for adventure and fun. Mr. E. R. Wallace was our adviser, and officers were: President, Margaret Hammond; Vice-President, Jasper Winslow; Secretary, Wilfred Hammond; Treasurer, James Hill.

Soon after we entered high school, we moved into our new, modern, well-equipped high school building. We were very fortunate to have such a nice building in which to spend our remaining four years.

In 1953 we acquired the title "Sophomores." We were happy to welcome seven new students from Tabernacle School and one other student to our class, making a total of thirty-two. The following persons, along with Mr. Snapp, our adviser, served as our leaders that year: President, Allen Smith; Vice-President, Darrell Peacock; Secretary, Sue Jackson; Treasurer, Shirley Gallimore; Reporter, Darrell Peacock. Ten Sophomores were tapped into the Beta Club, a National Honor Society. Those were: Louise Barrier, Wilfred Hammond, James Hill, Joyce Gordon, Margaret Hammond, Sue Jackson, Jane Martin, Darrell Peacock, Jasper Winslow, and Evelyn Luther. Two classmates left us during the year.

Almost before we knew it, we were Juniors, nearer than ever to our goal of graduation. Miss Dixie Henderson was our adviser and we elected as our officers: President, Evelyn Luther; Vice-President, James Hill; Secretary, Shelby Surratt; Treasurer, Darnell Nance; Reporter, Jasper Winslow. We began early and eagerly to plan for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. On April 16, 1954 at the Farmer Grange Hall, it became a reality. Another great occasion was receiving our class rings. That year we lost one classmate.

And then we were Seniors. It didn't seem possible that the eleven years, which before had seemed to be an eternity, could have passed so quickly. However, as we moved down to the front seats in chapel and began the traditional duties of "Dignified Seniors", it became more realistic.

We were both pleased and fortunate in having Erika Meier, a German student, join our class making a total of twenty-four Seniors. Erika has added a great deal to our class and we shall always cherish her friendship.

We chose light blue and white for our class colors, and the white rose for our flower. Our motto is: "Not finished, just begun."

We soon elected our officers as follows: President, Darrell Peacock; Vice-President, Helen Cranford; Secretary, Jane Martin; Treasurer, James Hill; Reporter, Evelyn Luther. Mrs. Inez Hussey was our adviser. Our initial task was that of publishing the sixth edition of "Far-Echoes." The Annual Staff worked tirelessly and faithfully to make what we think will be the best edition yet of our yearbook.

Plans for a Thanksgiving supper, our trip to Washington in the spring, the Senior play, and graduation kept us busy.

For twelve years we have shared our joys and sorrows. Friendships have been formed which will survive through many years. Our hearts are saddened by the thoughts of parting. Yet we must look to God and face the future unafraid. To those teachers, parents, and friends who have lent us a helping hand, we shall forever be grateful.

As we part, each to his prospective goal, we are aware of our indebtedness to our school, which has been an important milestone in our climb to success. We shall continually strive to repay this debt by our service to our fellow man and to our Lord.

Class Prophecy

This is Dad Burns reporting to you from Station WSAT (We scatter all trash). An important news bulletin has just arrived, which should be of interest to the persons of this community, The Class of '55, which graduated ten years ago, is holding a reunion.

But first, a word from our sponsor. If you bulge out where you should sink in and sink in where you should bulge out, try Bill Davis's "Tummy Trimmer." Just ten cents down and ten cents an hour at the Jewel Box. This offer is limited to only two years. Hurry, get your crate today. Guaranteed to do something or double your money back.

And now, the news.

Louise Lewis has fulfilled her lifelong ambition to live in Aberdeen. She is editor of the gossip column "Lou's Slender Slander" in the Aberdeen Daily News.

As you approach the entrance of the Jackson Creek Academy, you can hear wee little voices saying, "Our teacher is the best teacher." There you find Glynn Hulin trying desperately to teach the first graders the four R's; readin', 'ritin', 'rithmetic, and romance.

After ten long years, Margaret Hammond is still a happy house wife.

Allen Smith, now a famous singer on Broadway, is stand-in for the ever-popular Perry Como. It is rumored that their positions may soon be reversed.

Sue Jackson operates a kindergarden on Main Street in Tabernacle. This offers her plenty of pastime as she is yet undecided about being the wife of a preacher, doctor, or engineer.

George Lanier is owner and operator of a nine hundred acre farm. Maybe his "Adams-culture" was helpful after all.

After ten years of courtship, Darnell Nance, postmaster at Denton, has finally proposed to Margaret Loflin. However, she refused saying she wasn't nearly old enough; and besides, she was afraid of that thing called "love at first sight."

If you need a good used car, see Jasper Winslow. His specialty is 1940 Fords. He has a way of wrapping things up for you.

Ruby Johnson, billionairess, has just married her fourth millionaire, another red-head. The happy couple are going to Lower Slobovia to see how the other half lives.

Darrell Peacock has attained the position of a radio announcer. He was recently voted, "The boy I would like most to be marooned on a Desert Island with."

Louise Barrier is pastor of The Congregational Church of Farmer.

With much hard labor and sweat of the brow, Wilfred Hammond has made flag boy for the surveying crew of Dickerson and Company.

The former Jane Martin, the wife of a prominent lawyer, continues her nursing career at the Griffis Clinic in Denton.

And now a look at politics. The Republicans have done it again. Yes, our own Jim Hill, a life-long, die-hard Republican, has been elected President of the United States. About every two weeks he gets away from the hustle and bustle of the business world to spend a nice quiet week-end playing basketball with the Globe-Trotters.

Erika Meier returned to her native country, Germany, after graduation. There she became a famed artist.

The school buses in Randolph County are being kept in A-1 condition under the skillful workmanship of Billy Younts, county mechanic.

For a load of side-splitting laughs, tune in "Laugh with Helen" starring Mrs. Helen Cranford Andrews, eight nights each week on your favorite TV station. You're certain to burst the buttons off your shirt or stretch your suspenders.

Attention, men. See H.A. Lewis for a unique haircut and shave. Just watch for the red and white sign on the Mack Road.

As we all remember, Joyce Gordon began her career as a house wife early. Having carried her career farther she now has three smiling youngsters. A successful marriage we'd say.

Billy Belle was recently awarded the ten-year service pin for efficient work at Stedman's in Asheboro.

If you need a quick, safe way of traveling, telephone the "Blue-Jay" Taxi Company. Mary Lowe, one of the most dependable drivers, has been driving a wreck for the past ten years and has never had an accident.

Evelyn Luther is now private secretary to the president of the Harrison's Paper Cup Factory now located on the outskirts of Farmer at the section of town known as Denton.

Well, folks, time is up for today. Join us tomorrow, same time, same station for a blow by blow description of the world happenings. Until then this is your old pal Dad Burns saying, "Remember, drive carefully. The life you save may be mine."

James Hill
Prophet

We're leaving dear Farmer
 With fond memories we go.
 We wish success to the Juniors
 Oh we'll miss you so.
 We will always remember
 The fun that we've had.
 But now we must leave
 And it makes us so sad.

We look to the future
 Know not what it holds.
 We leave here tomorrow
 Where, only God knows.

May we always remember
 Things as they are now.
 We'll never forget you
 And this is our vow.

Class Song

We, the class of '55,
 Have traveled a long, long way.
 We saw in sight as years went by
 That great graduation day.

Our dear friends and good teachers,
 we're leaving;
 We'll miss them, we wish we could stay.
 But another road is beckoning
 That will lead us another way.

Our futures now seem dim;
 Our course is hard to see,
 But classmates true and comrades too,
 Let this our slogan be:

"Class of '55, rise up,
 And make yourself a name.
 In scholarship and fellowship
 Rise up and on to fame."

Super-Superlative

"Friendship, like the immortality of the soul, is too good to be true." - Emerson. These words express our feeling toward Erika Meier of Westphalia, Germany, who became a member of our class this year. Custom and language barriers soon dissolved into understanding, respect, and mutual appreciation. Though she will return to Germany this summer, her gay sense of humor, lively spirit, and vivacious personality have formed a bond of friendship which will endure forever. Auf Wiedersehen.
